LONDON, JUNE 21.

On Tuesday advice was received at Calais from Paris, that preliminaries of peace between the court of Vienna and the French Republic had been signed; and in consequence of which intelligence, there were great rejoicings in every town from Paris to Calais.

Milan makes a more formidable resistance than could be expected. The fortress is garrisoned by general de Sales, with 4000 men. He is invested by 12,000 Frenchmen; but his reply to the summons is, that while he has a man remaining he will not surrender. The French were ptepared to give the assault at the latter end of May.

Beaulieu, reinforced, has taken a strong position with 14,000 men, that covers Lake de Garde and enables him to succour Mantua.

Mantua is garrisoned by 10,000 men, amply provided with necessaries. At Trent and Roveredo there is an immense quantity of horses and baggage, which are to be sent into the interior. The monied men come forward very liberally to defray the expence.

The Italian Gazettes say that the Monks of our lady of Loretto have embarked with her precious wardrobe. The most moderate travellers estimate the treasure of this church at more than 150 millions of livres. The list of the various articles it contains forms a volume.

A contribution for 200,000 Zechins has been laid upon the Jews at Modena. Many of the nobility at Milan have had their arms erased from their coaches, &c. and others serve in the national guard. Ten waggons loaded with money, have already been sent from that city for Paris.

A letter from Madrid, dated April 26, says, "They are making at this time a levy of 60,000 men throughout all the estates of his Majesty. There has been formed at Aranjuez a council of 21 generals, to digest a new plan and regulation for this army. We understand, likewise, that in three departments of the marine, Cadiz, Ferrol, and Carthagena, they have put in requisition the sailors of the neighbouring ports, and that they are equipping their best ships. Troops are continued to be sent to Cadiz, who go from thence to reinforce the camp of St. Roch. All those dispositions seem to announce a prospect of war."

The Spaniards have 5,000,000 sterling coming home in the course of the summer, which is very well known to the Directory at Paris. This may account for the mysterious conduct of the cabinet of Madrid towards this country.

A letter from the Hague dated June 7, says—"It is with the utmost impatience we expect the confirmation of the intelligence received here, that admiral Richery's squadron had joined the Dutch fleet, which, under the orders of the rear-admiral Lucas, is gone to the East-Indies to re-conquer the Cape of Good Hope."

The purser of the Thames reports, that since she has been in the service of the French, she had taken 136 prizes, and 60 while he was on board.

The last extraordinary meetiug of the whig club, voted 500 guineas towards the expences of Mr. Fox's election for Westminster; the duke of Northumberland subscribed 500 guineas, the duke of Bedford 500, and several other of the minority nobless, &c. in porportion; the whole sum raised for this purpose amounts to 3500l.

The expences of Mr. Honeywood, in the election for Kent, are calculated to fall little short of 30,000l. those of sir F. Geary touch on 60,000l.

There is an extraordinary summons for a meeting of the whig club, to recommend a subscription in order to commence a scrutiny into the votes of sir W. Geary on the late Kent election.

The crops of wheat and other corn were never spoken of as being in better condition than at the present time, The hay season has been remarkably productive all over the kingdom.—But who are to reap the benefit of these crops? and when?

For the late Mr. Whitbread's brewety a company of gentlemen have offered 350,000l. Mr. Whitbread, jun. who wishes to decline the business, asks 500,000l. sterling.

Pache, the Frenchman who was apprehended on Tuesday evening in Germyn-street, was one of the six of the executive council who, on the 28th of Jan. 1793, signed the warrant for the execution of the unfortunate Louis.

NEWCASTLE, JUNE 18.

From the Calcutta Monthly Journal, January 1796.

Lieutenant Campbell and Dr. Phillips, of this establishment are to go to New South Wales with the Britannia. The object of their going thither we understand to be, to procure recruits for the company's European battalions, from among the men who have gone through the period assigned them to remain at New South Wales.

Letters have been received by the late arrivals from the eastward, which mention that an insurrection of the Chinese, of an alarming nature, had taken place at Batavia—Thirty thousand of those industrious but much oppressed people, are said to have recourse to arms, and being joined by a numerous body of slaves, of all the nations of the East, to have spread terror and alarm throughout the whole of the districts in the vicinity of Batavia. The particular circumstances which led a mild and inoffensive people to measures of such apparent desperation, are not particularised.

BRISTOL, JUNE 27.

DEFEAT OF THE FRENCH ON THE RHINE.

We early this morning received Paris journals to the 22d inst. inclusive. From General Jourdan's letter it appears that the French have been defeated on the right bank of the Rhine, by the Archduke Charles. It is certainly not to be expected that a French general will give a faithful account of the disasters experienced by his own army: but still there is sufficient in the letter of Jourdan to warrant a conclusion that the defeat which he sustained, has been of some magnitude. This indeed is evident from the avowed consequences of the action: Jourdan having been reduced to the necessity of re-crossing the Rhine with precipitation, and Kleber, who had rapidly advanced to the banks of the Nahe, having been compelled to fall back to the Sieg.

It should not escape our readers notice, that in a former campaign, the Sieg and the Lahn were the places that the republican army met with a severe check.

The retreat of General Wurmser, and of the Archduke, from Hundsruck, it now appears, were skilful manœuvres to enable them to attack the French on the right bank of the Rhine with more advantage.

FROM FRENCH PAPERS.

PARIS, JUNE 15.

If we can believe letters from Strasburg, two Austrian commissioners have passed through that place for Paris. What gives appearance of truth to this account, is, that the letters from Vienna assure us that the Emperor is violently agitated. He has forbidden the name of Buonaparte to be mentioned in any other way than by the title of "Chief of Brigands in Italy."—Our letters further add, that the Cabinet of Austria has dispatched two couriers; one for Petersburgh, and the other for London.—Count Metternich is the one sent to London. He is directed to signify the Emperor's determination to make peace with the French Republic.

It seems certain that there are in Paris two Austrian commissioners who have come to negociate a peace.

JUNE 17.

A letter from Vienna, of the 30th of May informs, that the Pope wished to pay a visit to that place, but that the Emperor refused the reception of the visit.

LEGHORN, MAY 27.

The insurgents in the island of Corsica, have not, as was said, taken Ajaccio, but they had blockaded that place. The insurrection is general throughout the interior.—The viceroy who advanced as far as Corte with a body of troops, retired in disorder after having lost the better part of them, with all his baggage. It is said he was surrounded by the insurgents, and cannot return to Bastia. This last merits confirmation. But there is great appearance that the English will very soon be obliged to shut themselves up in the towns.

LONDON, JUNE 17.

The following is a copy of a letter from Nicholas Reinicke, the Swedish consul at Havre, to Citizen Stanislaus Faure, Editor of the Havre Bulletin.

"Havre, 15th Prairial.

"According to official intelligence, which his Excellency Baron Stael, Ambassador from Sweden, has just received from Stockholm, the apprehensions of a rupture between Sweden and Russia are wholy dissipated. This I hope, Citizens, you will insert in your paper for the information of the merchants of this town in particular, and all that may be interested in the events

Health and Friendship.

N. REINICKE."

JUNE 18.

A very singular and alarming circumstance has transpired, within the last few days, which we deem it our duty to communicate to the public: three foreigners had resided, for some time past at a place on the Eastern coast. The facts which follow: will shew the propriety of neither mentioning their names, nor that of the place af their residence. They had been employed in sounding, taking plans, &c. in various parts of the coast, under the pretence of amnsement. They were utterly unsufpected by the inhabitants, till the incautious present of a large sum of money, to the man with whom they lodged, awakened suspicions that their wealth was greater, and their designs more important than they appeared to be. Information of their misterions character and employment was immediately transmitted to government. Warrants were issued to apprehend them. Two escaped, and one was taken, but such was the importance of the discoveries extorted from him that the particulars of his seizures and examination have been corefully kept from the public. It is far from our wish to impede any measures of government for protecting the country against foreign enemies: we have therefore carefully suppressed every particular which has reached us, the disclosure of which might have that tendency.

NEGOCIATION WITH THE POPE.

It now appears that the intended march of the French troops to Leghorn was set aside, solely in consequence of an alteration of circumstances, that rendered this measure unnecessary, which was, that the offers of his Holiness to negociate, being strongly backed by the court of Spain had been finally agreed to. General Buonaparte, it seems, previous to this, had ordered a column of 25,000 men to proceed to Rome.—The terms proposed by the French general are, that his Holiness shall deliver up the Apollo of Belvidere, the Laocoon groupe, and several other magnificent statues, with 50 paintings to be selected by the French, besides paying a contribution of 50 millions of French livres in ready money, or plate. This last condition, it was thought, would be mitigated by the mediation of the Spanish ambassador at Rome. In the mean while a cessation of arms has been agreed upon.

Alexandria, August 27.

The President of the United States arrived in Philadelphia last Sunday evening.

The Honorable James Gillespie is re-elected representative for Congress from North Carolina, and Richard Stanford, Esq. in the room of Absolam Tatom. Esq.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of Baltimore, August 19th.

"I had, this morning, the pleasure of seeing the President, on his return to Philadelphia. I say seeing for I only saw; and with pleasure: For if pleasurable ideas can be called up by the sight of Man, they must be by the sight of that Man; what he was: what he is; what he has done; what he is doing: and what he may yet do—for he appears healthful and active. Hmen are to receive hereafter not only according to what they have done, but according to the fruit of their doings, what bounds can we set to his future reward?"

Extract of a letter from an American gentleman of the first respectability in France, to a gentleman in Boston.

"The news of this country you undoubtedly have in the papers with more accuracy than I can give it—— The question of peace and war is the only interesting event. Peace is all the time in contemplation, and I believe I may say, negociating between France and the Emperor, and may be expected to take place before next winter; but it is my opinion that there will be no peace with England for two years; and I think it possible that before that event takes place, the Bank Notes of England may not be more valuable than the Assignats or Mandates of France."

THE TWO FOLLOWING LETTERS ARE EXTRACTED FROM A LONDON PAPER OF JUNE 21.

Extract of a letter from Dover, June 7

"Arrived the Carolina, Inglis, from Charleston: and the Minerva captain Turner, from Boston.——About twenty passengers landed from these vessels; among whom was Christ Gore, Esq. commissioner from the United States of America, appointed to bring over, and finally adjust, the treaty of commerce between that country and this. Mr. Gore left Dover this afternoon, for London. Above 1000 ship letters were landed from the above vessels, and forwarded by this evening's mail."

Extract of a letter from Falmouth, June 19.

Friday the Washington, American East Indiaman, of 750 tons, through the folly or villainy of two pilots she had taken on board, went on shore on the Lizard Point, the ship will be lost. She was esteemed the finest ship belonging to the states; her cargo which can be got at is bringing up here, consisting of bales of silk, muslins, India hemp, &c. It is supposed about 300 tons of sugar; and a great quantity of rice, will be wholly destroyed, the whole estimated in the country at 55,000l. The captain had sugar on board to the amount of 14000 dollars, uninsured. She came from Calcutta, but whether for the account of the English company or not, cannot be known. The pilots are absconed."

FROM THY SUN OF JUNE 8.

With infinite satisfaction we announce, that the Treaty between Great Britain and the United States of America has at last received the ratification of the House of Representatives by a majority of three voices, there being for the Treaty 51, and against it 48. In consequence the House on the 3d of May passed "A Bill for making appropriations towards defraying the expence of carrying into effect the treaty lately concluded between the United States and Great Britain."

Mr. Liston, with his lady, arrived at New-York at the propitious moment when the ratification of the treaty was annonnced.

This intelligence, so highly important to the mercantile world, was brought to Glasgow by the Fanny, Captain Braine, in 22 days from New-York.

The ship Watts, Captain William Fell, belonging to Maryport, was once called the Mary and Ann. This vessel which is 126 years old, was at the siege of Derry, is said to have been the vessel which broke the boom, and is now on her passage from Maryport to Memel.

We learn from St. Bartholomews that the Inhabitants of Berbice and Demerara invited the English to take possession of those places, which will bring down the vengeance of France and Holland, and it is supposed that their property will be entirely confiscated. St. Vincents is peaceable, except a few Caribs in the mountains: Grenada is also placed in a more agreeable situation than formerly; their fate, however, depends a good deal on the situation of St. Lucie, and that island is not so effectually reduced as to place it out of danger; at least 2000 men are concealed in the mountains, and will soon be troublesome to the captors again. The inhabitants of the other English islands are revived a little, in consequence of the reinforcement under Abercrombie; but they are now reduced to half their number. A reinforcement from Presq' Isle had arrived at St. Kitts, of about 6000 men. An attack, it was supposed, was intended against 'Statia and St. Martins; but if they can protect these islands it will be well, as Hughes has been very quiet this some time, waiting for a lurch. Great praise is given to Mr. Martlet, commissioner of St. Eustatia, for his humane conduct to the inhabitants of that island, one of the first traits of a distinguished and brave officer.

N. Y. P.

The scourge of war ought ever to be held in view to deter nations from intailing them, from passion or ambition.—We therefore give the following anecdote, which may be relied on, and which we have learned from a gentleman who left the West Indies last month. When the 18th regiment arrived at Barbados with Admiral Christian's squadron, it consisted of 750 effective men; in two months it lost, by the fever, 575—the remains were then incorporated with the remnant of another regiment which had been there some time, and at the time our informant left the island both consisted of no more than 105 effectives.

CURIOUS NOTE.

EXTRACT FROM A PARIS PAPER.

It is not only the courage and talents of Buonaparte but more particularly his name, which contains the letter R, terrifies the people of Rome; This wants to be explained.

A much revered prophet of that country has announced several centuries ago, that Italy would not be subdued except by a general who had but one R in his name; that resistance against such a one would be vain; that Rome would open its gates to him; and that the powers of the Pope would from that time be at an end. The Romans pretend, that the prophet in question, has never deceived them; that all his oracles were hitherto found true. In confirmation of this, they cite several proofs. It was observed that from the commencement of the war, they were persuaded that Kellerman, one day would set the tri-coloured flag on the top of the Capitol, because his name contained the fatal letter.

It is more than probable, that the honor of verifying the prophecy is reserved for Buonaparte, yet it must be allowed, that with armies like ours Generals with or without an R, posses powerful means to recover the native country of Cicero and Brutus to Philosophy and Liberty.

DIVORCES.

An account has just been published in Paris of the Divorces which have taken place in the capital for the last fifteen months. They amount to 5994, of which 3870 were demanded by the ladies, and 2124 by the gentlemen!—It reflects no great honor on the good citizens of Paris, that the number of lady malcontents should be in the proportion of two to one, and this notwithstanding the scarcity occasioned by the war.

ANECDOTE.

A negro man in the country of Plymouth, who was remarkably serious and conscientious, in a short time after he was married, discovered he had been fatally successful, as well as early in some of his amorous interviews, for behold his wife was just on the verge of motherhood. The poor husband, smitten with a woful sense of this sin of commission—posted to his minister as soon as possible, and began his address to him with "O dear massa, me dreffful wicked—me want confession." "Why Toby," said the minister, "What is the matter."—"O massa," cried Toby, with a deep sigh, "My wife he go had baby too soon." "Ah! Toby," said the minister, "I am very sorry for you, but you had better wait until the child is born."—"No, dear massa," replied Toby, "me confess now, me feel bery much bad."—Accordingly the minister drew up a confession, which he read publicly the Sunday following—upon which Toby's twinges all left him as is usual in such cases—but soon after his wife was brought to bed of twins—here was a new affliction for poor Toby—away he went to the minister again—as full of remorse as ever, and opened his case anew—saying—"Rebere Sir. me want more confession—my wife he got two baby."—The minister told him the other confession was enough for both—and Toby, after much persuasion, was reasoned down to a quiet confession a second time.

FROM THE WEST-INDIES.

BERMUDA, JULY 30.

The 3d of June the troops from St. Lucia arrived at Cariacou, Grenada, and the next day General Abercrombie arrived in the Arethusa frigate from St. Vincents, and gave his orders to Brigadier-General Nicolls, who continued in command until the suppression of the rebellion: The impetuosity of the British troops, militia, and black rangers was such, that they stormed every camp but one, carrying every thing before them, and considering the danger, with but little loss on our side, while on the part of the enemy they suffered severely, on account of not discriminating the French from the treacherous British subjects who had joined them. But few prisoners were taken on that account: of those that were taken (many had surrendered with the French, intending to pass as troops from Guadaloupe, but were soon known and tried) the following were executed on the parade on the 1st. July inst. out of 46 convicted, viz.

De Suze, Pierre Bo, Oringre, Charpentier, Dreaux, Pascal Mandel, Laubency, Battarell, Clozier D'Arcuil, Centinel (a mulatto), and Hippolite (a negro,) Marausto, Boudon and Barbaroux.

Julien Fedon, the mulatto general of the French in Grenada, was in the mountains with about eleven of his followers, not taken, on the 30th June; but as he was hemmed in on all sides by the black rangers and regulars, there was no doubt but that he is taken before this time and received his just reward.—By his means the Governor of Grenada was shot with many other English gentlemen.

The American papers received this week are in their usual consistence; they deny that St. Lucia is taken by the British forces, but that more troops were killed in the attack on that Island than went against it!!!

Yesterday a court was held for the trial of Dennis Baptiste Hamilton, who stood charged with having committed a rape on the body of Polly Burden. After an attentive hearing of evidence and the pleadings, the Court ordered the prisoner for further trial at the District Court, to be held at Dumfries the 20th of October next.

☞ THE Members of the St. ANDREW'S SOCIETY are informed that a special meeting will be held at Mr. Wise's tavern, on THIS DAY, the 27th inst. at 7 o'clock, P. M.

ANY Person in the country wishing to hire a young, active NEGRO WOMAN for a year or two, may hear of one to be had on easy terms by applying to the Printer.

FROM THE FEDERAL ORRERY.

GIVE me a Zembla with her ice and snows;
An India with a thousand sick'ning woes;
Make me t'obey stern Neptune's dread command,
To meet the bluft'ring storm and raging wind;
Give me a bastile—still severer fate,
Curfed inquisitions, chains, and priestly hate,
Beset my paths with all the ills of life,
Save one withhold—a haughty, fretful wife.

In other ills, we indulge the plaintive strain,
The tear, the sigh, can mitigate the pain;
But here tho' poignant anguish swell the heart,
Insulted shame can ne'er the grief impart—
And should despair, o'erpower'd the pang bewail,
Laughter and ridicule would mock the tale.

A VERY VALUABLE MERCHANT MILL, A DISTILLERY AND BREWERY, AND SUNDRY STONE QUARRIES TO BE LET.

I WILL rent my Merchant Mill at the Little Falls of Potowmac, for any term, not less than seven, or more than eleven years, from the first day of September next. The Mill house is 42 by 40 feet, three stories high, built with stone, and has in it 3 pair of French burr stons, two overshot 18 feet water wheels, and Evans's machinery complete, with every other thing proper and necessary for carrying on the business with dispatch, and at as little expence as possible, all in good order.—From the mill to my landing on the Potomac river, (where crafts of any burthen may deliver grain, and take in flour) it is about 40 yards, and from thence by water to George-Town and the City of Washington, about three miles, and to Alexandria about 11 miles. This situation aided by a sufficient capital, will command the produce of a very extensive back country, where large quantities of wheat and other grain is annually made, the distance to it being from 8 to 10 miles less, than to any market town upon the navigation of the Potowmack. There are on the premisses a large stone Cooper's shop, a stone granery and a commodious Miller's house. At the landing aforesaid a bridge is now building over the Potomac, which is in great forwardness and probably will be finished the ensuing Fall.

There are also on the premises a Brewery and Distillery built with stone, in them are three stills, two coppers or boilers, with every necessary article, all new, and in good order, and sufficiently large to carry on the Brewery and Distillery, upon a very extensive plan. This property I will rent for the same term of years.

Upon my lands adjoining the premises, and along the banks of the river, where crafts may load with ease and dispatch, is an immense quantity of building and foundation stones, four quarries are now open, and as many more may be opened with ease, the stone taken from these quarries is better, and has the preference at this market, to any other stone brought to it. I will rent these quarries seperately or together as may best suit.

Upon the top of the hill, and about 200 yards from the Mill is a stone Dwelling house, large enough for the accommodation of a family, also, a kitchen, Dairy, smoke house, &c. and a garden enclosed, and in cultivation, the soil of which is equal in goodness to any in this state. I will also rent this property.

Adjoining to the Brewery and Distillery is a Smith's shop in which is a complete set of Blacksmith's tools, which I will also rent, and if agreeable I will hire to the tenant two negro blacksmiths, one of them is a complete workman.

If I rent out the stone quarries, I will sell three crafts which were built for the purpose of carrying stone. They will altogether bring upwards of 90 perch. Immediate possession will be given, for terms apply to the subscriber in this town.

The Mill, Brewery and Distillery with their appurtenances will be delivered to the tenant or tenants in good repair, and must be so returned, at the expiration of the lease or leases.

There is on this plantation a good dwelling house with four rooms on the lower floor and two above, and out houses, and it abounds with fine springs. An accurate survey will be shewn at the sale, and it will be rquired that the purchasers shall execute bonds for six equal sums payable to each of the distributors or their guardians who are entitled to the money arising from the sales.
